

Serbian Council of Great Britain Српски Савет Велике Британије

presents

*"Britain and Serbia in the First World War:
British policy, public responses and humanitarian assistance"*

- by Milan Grba -

Curator of Southeast European Studies at the British Library

in commemoration of the Centenary of the First World War.

The talk by Milan Grba will be followed by a Q & A session.

From 6.30—8.00pm on Monday 3 November 2014

At the Eliot Room, Conference Centre, The British Library, 96 Euston
Road, London, NW1 2DB

The talk will be accompanied by the following exhibition:

"What did you do in Serbia in WW1, Grandma?"

An exhibition on the extraordinary role the Scottish Women's Hospitals played in Serbia during the Great War.

PLACES ARE LIMITED. TO REGISTER YOUR INTEREST IN THE EVENT PLEASE CONTACT
OLGA STANOJLOVIC, olga.stanojlovic@btinternet.com BY FRIDAY 24TH OCTOBER
